RBC/TPI Muttom Ladies Conference September 8-11, 2009

(below) Mrs. Reena Kataria, teacher, Ladies Conference with two lady delegates. Reena is the Director of Gyan Institute of Learning located in Bangalore, Karnataka, India. It is a pioneer organization in nursery teacher's training. Reena teaches these classes in the Hindi, English, Punjabi and Kannada languages. Reena and her husband, Deepak, have three sons.

(below) Lori Coke and Reena Kataria with some of the lady delegates standing in front of the RBC Chapel where the lady's sessions took place. Two of the ladies testified to having babies following prayer at last year's conference. Another was told five years ago that she would receive a "double blessing,"—had twins. Four women in this conference came forward for prayer to have their wombs opened to have babies. Hindus mock Christian women who are barren. These miracles break the bondage of Hinduism.

RBC/TPI Muttom Hebrew Conferences September 8-11, 2009

"Transitional Year" Indian teachers sharing teaching with Americans

(left) This Conversational/Exegetical Hebrew class was taught by Dr. Karl Coke, Chancellor, Timothy Program International, Charlotte, North Carolina, U.S.A. He was assisted by Rev. R. Peter John Mohan Raju (third from right, first row), Teacher, Tirunelveli District, Tamil Nadu, India. Rev. Raju would have this class speak from the lessons written by Dr. Coke known as "Conversational Hebrew." He would "drill" them while Dr. Coke was with the Advanced Hebrew class. Then, Dr. Coke would return to the class and lead the students in "how to" use Hebrew in sermon preparation. Most of these students are teaching Hebrew in their cities. Each student was given a Gesenius Hebrew Lexicon CD and two Conversational Hebrew CDs.
